

St. Patrick's Day Newspaper Scavenger Hunt

Find as many of these items as you can in the newspaper.

1. An advertisement for an item that would take a "pot of gold" to buy.
2. A recipe for preparing corned beef and cabbage.
3. A feature story about lucky people or events.
4. A city that might be able to see a rainbow based on the weather forecast.
5. A list of all the different shades of green named in the paper.
6. Four lucky things you wish for, that you could write on each leaf of a four leaf clover.
7. Somewhere hosting a St. Patrick's Day parade, party or dance.
8. Something Irish.
9. A photo of someone celebrating St. Patrick's Day.
10. A story about someone who is helping others, like St. Patrick helped his fellow Irishmen.
11. Find a classified help wanted listing that would be a good job for a leprechaun.
12. A list of Irish names found in the obituary listings.
13. The name of a sport's team whose colors are green & white.
14. A comic strip about St. Patrick's Day.

Bonus: St. Patrick, Missouri is the only St. Patrick in the world that has a post office. Thousands of cards and letters are sent to the northeast Missouri town each year to be hand-stamped with a pictorial cancellation commemorating St. Patrick's Day. Find news items about other unique St. Patrick locations, traditions or events.
