

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Republicans reconsider the 'pledge'

By Bruce Plante / The Tulsa World, Courtesy Caglecartoons.com

Talking points

1. What have so many Republicans pledged to Grover Nordquist, President of Americans for Tax Reform?
2. Why did they take the pledge?
3. How could Nordquist hurt politicians who break their pledge to his group?
4. Which people does the "pledge" help the most?
5. Can you find out who is giving money to Nordquist's organization?

Between the lines

"I care too much about my country — I care a lot more about it than I do Grover Norquist."

- Sen. Saxby Chambliss, R-Ga.

http://www.washingtonpost.com/politics/norquist-still-calling-cadence-in-gop-ranks/2012/12/02/19d6362a-398d-11e2-8a97-363b0f9a0ab3_story.html

Additional resources

More by Bruce Plante

<http://www.cagle.com/author/bruce-plante/>

More by Steve Sack

<http://www.cagle.com/author/steve-sack/>

Association of American Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

By Steve Sack / Minneapolis Star Tribune, Courtesy Caglecartoons.com