

Navigating the New Bluebird User Interface

Before: menu bar located top of screen

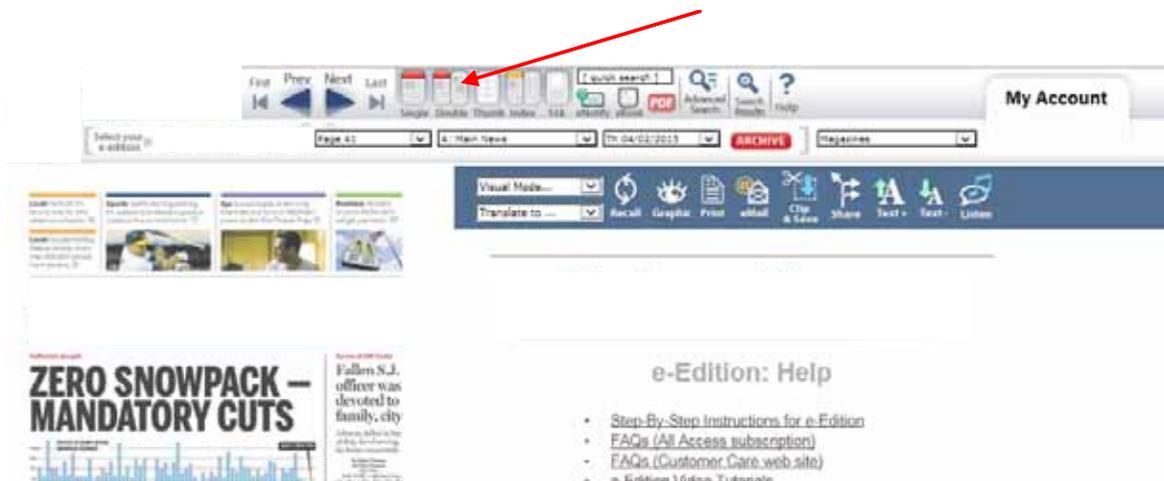

Now: menu bar located on right of screen

Navigating the New User Interface

Before: to change page option you would need to click on viewing options in menu bar

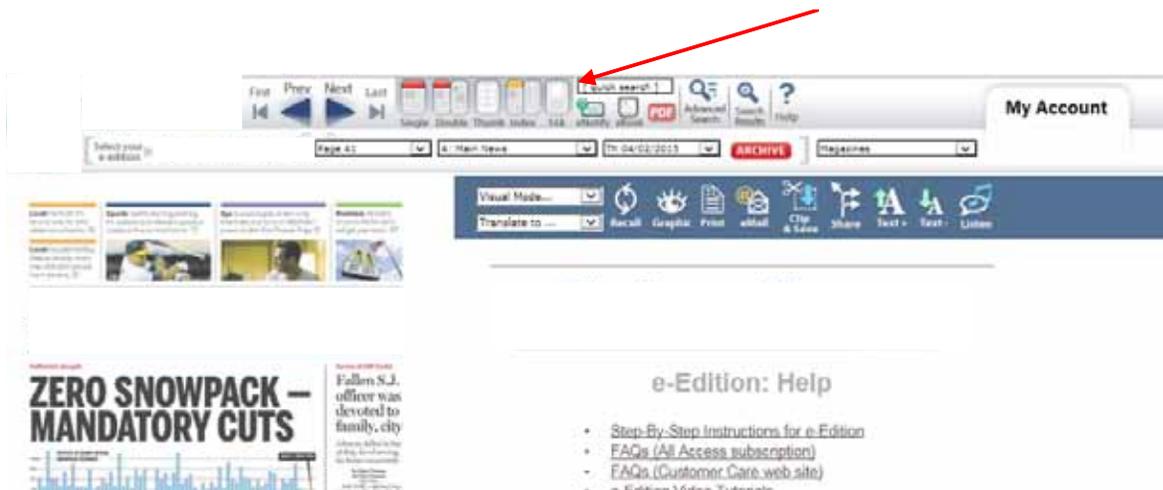

Now: Click on browse option for different viewing options

Navigating the New User Interface

Before: the PDF option was located in the top navigation bar

Now: Click on pages to view thumbnails of all pages. Use the download options across the top to download pages, section, or complete edition.

Navigating the New User Interface

Before: editions were selected from drop down menu bars on the top nav bar

Now: use the Editions icon from the black bar on the right. Select the thumbnail image of the edition you're looking for

Navigating the New User Interface

Before: sharing options were located in the middle nav bar

Now: once an article is selected, the share options appear in the upper right. Select the box with the arrow to display sharing options

