WRITING PROMPTS

OBJECTIVE:

Students will write an essay using writing skills.

PROMPT #1:

You've read several nonfiction books where the characters face some sort of violence. Is violence ever appropriate? Think about the violent situations in the books you've read. Write to persuade teens not to use violence to solve their problems. Use several specific examples from the books you have read to support your argument.

PROMPT#2:

In several of the books you have read, the main characters need-ed courage to face a problem. Write to compare the ways at least three of the main characters from the books you have read are courageous. Be sure to cite specific examples from your readings in your response.
