

Thanks for your support!

Orlando Sentinel's Newspaper in Education Handbag Sale

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped to make our first annual Handbag Sale a huge success. It all began with an idea to help raise money and provide support to Orlando Sentinel's Newspaper In Education program.

Each year, Newspapers in Education promotes literacy within our local schools by providing students and teachers with free newspapers, curriculum and other valuable resources for the classroom. This program cannot exist without support from our local community and business partners.

Thanks to your generous support, our first annual Newspaper In Education Handbag Sale generated over $19,000. This is money that will go directly back into the program and will continue to help our local classrooms thrive. It was amazing to see the camaraderie of our local community and businesses who came together to donate over 1,500 handbags for the sale. We are grateful to all of our donors and to the many sponsors who supported the event. Thank you also to the Florida Mall for hosting the event, the hundreds of patrons who attended the sale, and the many volunteers who worked the event and helped to piece everything together.

We could not have done it without everyone's support. Thank you again and thank you for helping to continue the mission of Newspapers In Education—to enrich, inspire and educate the children of our community.

We'd like to give a special thanks to the following companies for their generous support of the NIE Handbag Sale:
