HELP STEER STUDENTS IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

Sail back through time with Mr. K's students on their class trip to the Titanic. The plot unfolds as we read the personal journals of Mr. K and his students while they experience history firsthand. Readers will be on the edges of their seats as one of the students disappears on the ship just as the iceberg hits. Will the others get there in time to scoop him off the deck before the disaster deadline? It's an original story by awarding-winning author Jane Yolen.
