

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Taking liberties with someone else's art

By Steve Breen / San Diego Union-Tribune, Courtesy Caglecartoons.com

Talking points

1. Which artists "contributed" to these editorial cartoons?
2. When is it illegal to use another's artwork?
3. What is "fair use" of someone else's work?
4. What about using a creative work in parody?
5. In the quote below, Steve Jobs defends using other people's ideas to create the Macintosh. What does Apple do when someone "steals" their ideas?

Between the lines

"He said, 'Good artists copy, great artists steal.' And we have always been shameless about stealing great ideas ..." - Steve Jobs, founder of Apple.
