

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Russia locks down Olympic security

By Patrick Chappatte, International New York Times / Courtesy of cagle.com

Talking points

1. How well do these European cartoonists deliver their messages to an international audience?
2. Is security tighter for this year's Winter Olympics than in past games?
3. What security threat worries Russians the most?
4. What recent incidents have heightened security worries for the Sochi games?
5. What has happened at past Olympic games that could influence security planning?

Between the lines

Security is "particularly challenging in Sochi because of its proximity to areas of unrest." - James Comey, FBI director.

http://www.washingtonpost.com/world/national-security/fbi-sending-security-help-to-sochi-olympics/2014/01/09/f56f7d5e-7960-11e3-b1c5-739e63e9c9a7_story.html

Additional resources

More by Patrick Chappatte

<http://www.cagle.com/author/patrick-chappatte/>

More by Marian Kamensky

<http://www.cagle.com/author/marian-kamensky/>

Association of American Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

By Marian Kamensky / Courtesy of cagle.com