Talking Points

1. After months of trading threats and insults, President Donald Trump has agreed to meet with North Korean leader Kim Jong-Un. What do these cartoons say about the plan?
2. What really prompted Kim to seek the negotiations?
3. What risk is Trump taking by agreeing to talk to Kim?
4. How well have North Korea's regimes lived up to agreements in the past?
5. What names have Trump and Kim called each other?

Between the lines

"Who know what's going to happen? I may leave fast or we may sit down and make the greatest deal in the world." - President Trump
