

What fate are U.S. workers facing?

Talking Points

1. What are these cartoons saying about unemployment in the coronavirus pandemic and the plight of U.S. workers?
2. What will happen when states end emergency bans on evicting renters and homeowners?
3. The U.S. added 4.8 million jobs in June, but how high was the unemployment rate?
4. Several states are re-closing businesses as COVID-19 cases soar. How will that hit workers?
5. Some economists say it may take 10 years for employment to fully recover. Are you worried about your future job prospects?

Between the lines

"In order to avoid the risk of another Great Depression, the Senate must act with ... urgency to make sure that everyone in America has the income they need to feed their families and put a roof over their heads." - Sens. Bernie Sanders and Chuck Schumer.

<https://www.nytimes.com/2020/06/01/business/stock-market.html>

Additional resources

■ More by Dave Granlund

<https://www.cagle.com/author/dave-granlund/>

■ More by John Cole

<https://www.cagle.com/author/john-cole/>

■ Association of American

Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

John Cole, The Times-Tribune / Courtesy of Cagle.com