

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Who do you trust to tell Jan. 6 story?

Bruce Plante / Courtesy of Cagle.com

1. What are these cartoons saying about Fox News' Tucker Carlson showing tapes of some protesters calmly walking through the U.S. Capitol on Jan. 6, 2021?
2. Do those videos "prove" the protest was not violent?
3. Do videos of some protesters attacking police and breaking windows to enter the building "prove" that everyone was violent?
4. Would you be guilty of a crime if you entered someone's home behind a violent thug who broke down the front door?
5. Fox lawyers once argued that Carlson was not "stating actual facts." Do you trust what he says?

Between the lines

"The American people saw what happened on Jan. 6. They've seen the people that got injured. They saw the damage to the building. You can't hide the truth by selectively picking a few minutes out of tapes and saying this is what went on. It's so absurd." - Sen. Mitt Romney, R-Utah.

<https://www.seattletimes.com/nation-world/nation-politics/republican-lawmakers-split-over-carlsons-false-jan-6-claims/>

Additional resources

■ More by Bruce Plante

<https://www.cagle.com/author/bruce-plante/>

■ More by Rivers

<https://www.cagle.com/author/rivers/>

■ Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

Rivers / Courtesy of Cagle.com