

Cartoons for the Classroom

Presented by NIEonline.com and the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists (AAEC)

Have we forgotten tough lessons?

R.J. Matson, Roll Call / Courtesy of Cagle.com

1. What do these cartoons say about the 80th anniversary of D-Day, the Allied landing in France during World War II?
2. What do you know about the causes and effects of the deadliest war in history?
3. Who were the Fascists that United States and its allies fought against in World War II?
4. What exactly is Fascism and is it still a danger to democracy?
5. Have we forgotten some hard lessons of a war which was fought before most people were born?
6. What do you see as the biggest threats to peace and freedom in today's world?

Between the lines

"We know the dark forces that these heroes fought against 80 years ago; they never fade. Aggression and greed, the desire to dominate and control ... these are perennial. The struggle between dictatorship and freedom is unending." - President Joe Biden.

<https://www.thedailybeast.com/bidens-d-day-speech-nailed-the-threat-of-modern-fascism>

Additional resources

■ More by R.J. Matson

<https://cagle.com/matson>

■ More by Jeff Koterba

<https://cagle.com/koterba>

■ Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

Jeff Koterba / Courtesy of Cagle.com