

Tales of a dead candidacy and animals

John Darkow, Columbia Daily Tribune / Courtesy of Cagle.com

1. What do these cartoons say about Robert F. Kennedy Jr. ending his presidential campaign? And, the stories about him dumping a dead bear in New York's Central Park and cutting off the head of a dead whale to take it home?
2. Did Kennedy ever have a chance of winning the election? Why did he run? What were his issues?
3. Kennedy has endorsed Former President Donald Trump, who said RFK Jr. might get a post in his administration. Will Kennedy's endorsement help or hurt Trump's campaign? Why?
4. Have the stories about Kennedy and his endorsement of Trump made the race weirder?

Between the lines

"I love Bobby. But I hate what he is doing to our country.... I am today asking my fellow Americans to do what will honor our father the most: Ignore Bobby and support vice-president Kamala Harris and the Democratic platform." - Max Kennedy.

<https://www.theguardian.com/us-news/article/2024/aug/25/rfk-jr-brother-heartbroken-trump-endorsement>

Additional resources

■ More by John Darkow

<https://cagle.com/darkow>

■ More by Dave Granlund

<https://cagle.com/granlund>

■ Editorial Cartoonists

<http://editorialcartoonists.com/>

Dave Granlund / Courtesy of Cagle.com