

Colorado NIE moves from Tecnavia to PageSuite

The Colorado Newspapers In Education program has gone through an update! Here are the step-by-step directions to access your account:

- In your search bar – type in “Colorado NIE” (unless you have it saved to your favorites) - here is the URL you should find:

- Choose “e-Edition Access” and click on a newspaper logo

The screenshot shows the ColoradoNIE.com website. At the top, the logo "ColoradoNIE.com" is displayed with a graduation cap icon. Below the logo, a navigation bar includes links for Home, e-Edition, NIE Lessons, Weekly Lessons, Youth Content, Sponsors, and Contact Us. The main content area features a section titled "Announcements for Nov 28, 2022" with the heading "Advantages of the classroom eEdition!". This section lists several benefits: "Your students live in a digital world. The eEdition is an excellent interactive tool that helps you and your students meet technology and core curriculum learning objectives.", "ENHANCED. Choose to translate each article into multiple languages or choose an audio version. The full screen mode and intelligent zoom for pages and articles makes it even easier to read and navigate, plus there is a robust Table of Contents.", "EDUCATIONAL. The eEdition includes all youth content that you love, plus we provide curricula such as current events & geography quizzes, writing prompts and lessons for Language Arts, STEM and Social Studies.", "EFFICIENT. You receive total access 24/7 for your lesson-prep convenience. Students can access from home on any device.", "EDGY. Reach your students where they live – in a digital world.", and "EASY-TO-USE. Search by keywords." Below this text is a link: "▶ Click here for more information".

NEW STEPS BEGIN HERE!

The next steps in the log in process are new. You will need to go through the Media News Group authentication process to access our network. *This step has to be done for every user (teachers and students.)

New screen you will see:

NIE Colorado
News In Education - Student & Teacher Access

This page allows students and teachers to obtain access to Denver Post, Daily Camera, Longmont, Loveland, Greeley Tribune. You will need credentials supplied to you by your teacher.

- 1 Login
- 2 Register Teacher Credentials
- 3 Read the News!

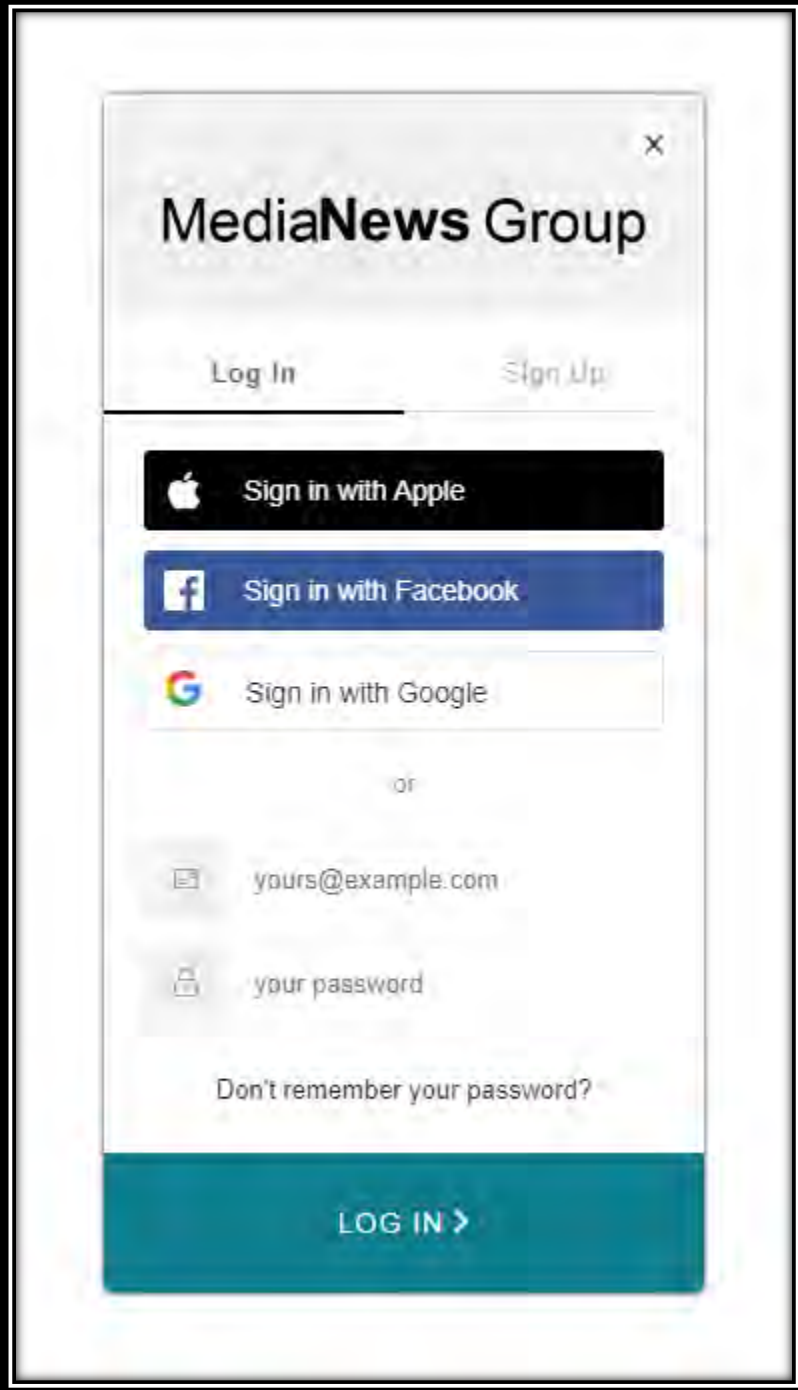

The first step is to sign in. You can create an account or use your school Google credentials. You should not use someone else's account or share your own credentials with other users.

THE DENVER POST   Daily Camera   TIMES-CALL

REPORTER-HERALD   GreeleyTribune

- If this is your first visit with this new method, please choose “Sign-Up”. The good news is that you have four options on how you can Sign Up/Log In:

The image shows a mobile application interface for MediaNews Group. At the top, the title "MediaNews Group" is displayed in a large, bold font. Below the title, there are two buttons: "Log In" and "Sign Up". The "Sign Up" button is highlighted with a teal background. Below these buttons, there are three social media login options: "Sign in with Apple" (black button), "Sign in with Facebook" (blue button), and "Sign in with Google" (white button with a colored 'G' icon). Below these options, there is a separator "or" and two input fields: "yours@example.com" and "your password". Below the password field, there is a link "Don't remember your password?". At the bottom, there is a large teal button labeled "LOG IN >".

- At this step, Teachers & Students will enter the Username & Password for access.
