

What do you know?

Colorado Kids: November 22, 2016

1. Which of these statements is NOT true about “Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them”?
 - q. It tells what happened after the events in the Harry Potter Books.
 - r. The screenplay was written by J.K. Rowling.
 - s. The film includes comedy and mystery.
 - t. The story takes place in the United States.

2. With which of these statements about “The Inquisitor’s Tale” would Thandi Glick most likely agree?
 - t. The story is told in a very straightforward, easy to understand way.
 - l. The novel is a series of stories told by different people.
 - r. Adults probably wouldn’t enjoy the book.
 - n. All of the above

3. Which of these events happened on November 22, 1963?
 - r. President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.
 - w. Lyndon B. Johnson became President of the United States.
 - p. Governor John Connally was wounded.
 - l. all of the above

4. What attracts marine animals to plastic?
 - o. It is shaped like fish that they eat.
 - d. It is shaped like krill, which they eat.
 - a. It smells like the algae that grows on it.
 - b. All of the above

5. In what way are orangutans similar to people?
 - r. Their arms measure 7 to 9 feet from fingertip to fingertip.
 - a. Their hair turns white as they grow older.
 - u. They are found only on the island of Sumatra.
 - e. All of the above

6. Why does using your smartphone or tablet near bedtime give you poor sleep that night?
 - d. It is true for both adults and kids.
 - i. The story does not say.
 - m. The study included many people of all ages.
 - e. Researchers from the University of California in San Francisco studied the question.

Fill in the letters to the correct answers above to solve this question:

English-speaking cowboys took the term for this valuable cattle-working tool straight from the vaqueros who taught them how to use it.

3 5 2 6 4 1

What do you think?

The story about smartphones suggests you not bring up the topic when you being told to put away your phone at bedtime. What is a good way to tell your folks about things they shouldn’t be doing, either?

Proofreading:

There are five errors in this passage. Can you find them all? Correct each mistake in the space above it.

Half of your said a family diner would be the central part of your holiday's, with traval and relaxation combinning for most of the rest.

Summarize the story:

Use three sentences to tell about marine animals, plastic and the sense of smell.

1.

2.

3.

Look it up!

For each of these presidents who died in office, tell the year they were inaugurated (not elected!) president, the year they died and the vice-president who succeeded them. We've done the first one for you.

John F. Kennedy	1961	1963	Lyndon B. Johnson
Zachary Taylor
Franklin D. Roosevelt
James Garfield
Abraham Lincoln
Warren G. Harding			