You’re already a great planner! Every day you get your homework done, get to music or sports practice on time, and plan where and when you’ll meet up with your friends. Are you ready to put your planning skills to good use? Are you ready to help your family get prepared for the unexpected?

It’s simple! It just takes planning and practice and these fun coloring and activity pages from Ready Kids will help. Together with Rex, the Ready Kids mountain lion mascot and his family, you will learn how to make an emergency supply kit, a family emergency plan, and be ready for many different kinds of unexpected situations.

You and your family can learn even more about preparing for the unexpected by visiting the Ready Kids website at www.ready.gov. Log on with your parents and click on Ready Kids to find easy steps that will help your family be ready!
Dad remember you promised, today I could help make our family's emergency supply kit!

Sure! Let's gather all the items on the Family Supply List and then review what special items our family should include!

I'll read you the list! First, a radio, flashlight, and two sets of batteries for each! What are you putting in your kit Hector?

Two lightning bugs!

I'll make one for my family too!

FAMILY COMMUNICATION PLAN

www.ready.gov
Mom, Dad! At school today we did a fire drill and talked about an emergency plan. Do we have an emergency plan for home?

Come inside and let's go over our home plan too.

We asked Grandpa Cougie in Florida to be our out-of-town contact.

That way he can tell everyone we are safe!

I love plans but how do we get in touch with each other?

I do have a cousin Buzz in California!

When you make a call, you may have to be patient getting through. You might have to keep trying.

Once you get through, keep calls short so others can call too!

That rules out Polly. Parrots talk too much anyway!

We need two meeting places that are easy to find... one near the house...

The 'Lookout'!... and one outside the neighborhood.

Aunt Clawdia's!

What about our pets?

Yes, we need to make them part of our plan. Also, let's make sure we have plenty of food and water for them in our supply kit.

What am I, chopped liver? I can be a pet too!

Speaking of which, let's check our supply kit and make sure we have everything we need.

What is it?

CHECK!

It's all in here!

So... now what?

First... Practice! LET'S GO!

I think first, you should try opening the door!

Very funny!

Mom, Dad! Wait ’til you hear what I learned today in Geography class!

We discussed all the weather related emergencies such as hurricanes, tornadoes, earthquakes and even blizzards!

You already know how preparing for an emergency is very important!

We have discussed our Family Communication Plan!

But what if something happens when I am at school or practice?

And we have assembled a Family Supply Kit!

Our meeting place outside the neighborhood is Aunt Clawdia’s if you cannot get home.

And if we need to leave home quickly, we have a portable supply kit ready to grab!

While you are at school, remember to stay calm and listen to directions of your teachers and principal.

You should always keep contacts and meeting place information ready in your backpack.

I have a surprise! Follow me!

Where is Hector taking us?

But there is ONE weather condition you have not prepared for!

What’s that?

A sunny day!

A picnic! Hector, what a nice surprise!

You really ARE prepared!
