A LOOK AT THE GUTS

TCF Bank Stadium is the first Big Ten stadium constructed since 1966. It was designed as an open-air, horseshoe-shaped bowl with a collegiate look and feel, with the open end displaying view of the campus and downtown Minneapolis. The stadium cost $288.5 million to build.

PREFERRED LEVEL

- Preferred seats
- Presidential suite
- Sideline concourse
- Premium seating:
  - Field level premium seating consists of cut-level club seats, leg rests, private restrooms, and indoor club seats.

PRESIENTS LEVEL

- Presidents suite
- Sideline concourse
- Premium seating:
  - Field level premium seating consists of cut-level club seats, leg rests, private restrooms, and indoor club seats.

INDOOR CLUB ROOM

- 827 square feet, 29 suites
- 34-40 seats per suite
- Windows
- Restrooms
- Suites
- Bar

PRIVATE SUITES

- 69 suites, 2 to 10 seats per suite
- 1650 square feet
- Private restrooms
- Private entrances

MAIN CONCIERGE LEVEL

- Concierge
- Ticketing
- Guest services
- Restrooms
- Concessions
- 300 square feet

CONCIERGE

- The second floor concierge wraps around the entire stadium and is open to the field of play in concourses and restrooms are located here.

PLAQUE

- The UM Marching Band will be located in a 22,393-square-foot area.

PREMIER PLAZA

- The Student Union building.

FIELD LEVEL

- The plaza is a great view of the stadium.

MINNESOTA TRIBAL NATIONS PLAZA

- The plaza is a great view of the stadium.

VETERANS TRIBUNE

- The veterans tribune consists of Minnesota plates that are placed on the plaza.

GARAGE LEVEL

- 6000 square feet

OF OFFICE

- The office is located in the stadium.

Check out the interactive look of the stadium and follow this guide to get a good view.

http://www.startribune.com/stadium/125796444/