JAPAN OFFICIALLY DECLARES WAR

JAPXS ATTACK HONOLULU, MANILA; F. D. R. ORDERS ARMY, FLEET INTO ACTION

TOKIO—Monday—(AP)—Japanese imperial headquarters announced at 6 A.M. today that Japan had entered a state of war with the United States and Britain in the western Pacific as from dawn today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—(AP)—Japanese airplanes today attacked American defense bases at Hawaii and Manila, and President Roosevelt ordered the Army and Navy to carry out undisclosed orders prepared for the defense of the United States. Later it was reported it was all quiet at Manila.

The White House said that Japan had attacked America's vital outposts in the Pacific—Hawaii and Manila—at 3:20 P.M. (E.S.T.) and that so far as was known the attacks were still in progress.

Announcing the president's action for the protection of American territory, Presidential Secretary Stephen Early declared that so far as is known the attacks were made without warning—when both nations were at peace—and were delivered within an hour or so of the time that the Japanese ambassadors had gone to the state department to hand to the Secretary of State Japan’s reply to the secretary's memorandum of the 26th.
